WATER NOTICES.

WATER NOTICE.

DIVERSION AND USE.

TAKE NOTICE that the British Columbia Electric Power and Gas Company, Limited, whose address is 425 Carrall Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, will apply for a licence to take and use 250 cubic feet per second of water out of Silver Hope Creek, which flows north-west and drains into the Fraser River about 2 miles west of Hope, British Columbia.

The water will be diverted from the stream at a point about 1½ miles up-stream from Cariboo Highway Crossing of Silver Hope Creek, and will be used for power purposes upon the land described as about ½ mile up-stream from Cariboo Highway Crossing of Silver Hope Creek.

This notice was posted on the ground on the 29th day of June, 1932.

A copy of this notice and an application pursuant thereto and to the "Water Act" will be filed in the office of the Water Recorder at Kamloops, British Columbia.

Objections to the application may be filed with the said Water Recorder or with the Comptroller of Water Rights, Parliament Buildings, Victoria, British Columbia, within thirty days after the first appearance of this notice in a local newspaper.

The territory within which its powers in respect of the undertaking are to be exercised is within a radius of 40 miles of the point of diversion.

A petition for approval of the undertaking will be heard in the office of the Board of Investigation at a date to be fixed by the Comptroller, and any interested person may file an objection thereto in the office of the Comptroller or of the said Water Recorder.

BRITISH COLUMBIA ELECTRIC POWER AND GAS COMPANY, LIMITED.

V. LAURSEN, Solicitor for Applicant.

The date of the first publication of this notice is the 7th day of July, 1932. 2398-jy7

"WATER ACT."

NOTICE is hereby given that the Westminster Power Company, Limited, a body corporate with head office at 503 Westminster Trust Block, New Westminster, B.C., has filed a petition for an extension of the time set in the certificates of approval of its undertaking and amendments and conditional water licences (Licences Nos. 2698 to 2710, inclusive) and amendments for the development of power from Mesliloet River, flowing into Burrard Inlet, and Young Creek, Brandt Creek, Norton Creek, Hixon Creek, Young Lake, Don Lake, Norton Lake, Belknap Lake, Barnes Lake, Joseph Lake, Ann Lake, and the waters thereof or adjacent thereto or flowing into the same, and for the completion of work referred to in said certificates, and for the amendment of the said certificates of approval of its undertaking and the said conditional water licences accordingly, and for the certificates of approval of the undertaking of the Company to be amended, varied, or altered by dividing the same into five parts, as stated in the said petition, instead of as at present stated in said certificates, and by extending the time for the completion of the works of each part to dates respectively mentioned in said petition.

A copy of the petition is on file in the office of the Comptroller of Water Rights at the Parliament Buildings, Victoria, B.C., and in the office of the Water Recorders for Vancouver and New Westminster, with any of whom objections to the petition may be filed by any person interested, and the petition will be heard in the office of the Board at a date to be fixed.

The date of the first publication of this notice is the 7th day of July, 1932.

Dated at New Westminster, B.C., this 2nd day of July, 1932.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill:
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

473-my1 W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

(h.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, or otherwise, and hold, mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, mining lands, prospects, licences, and mining rights of every description, and oil, petroleum, and natural-gas licences, leases, and properties, and to work, develop, operate, turn to account, sell, or otherwise dispose thereof:

(i.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and to undertake and carry on the whole or any part of any undertaking or business now existing or at any time in the future to come into existence, together with property, liabilities, assets, and engagements thereof, whether as a going concern or otherwise, and to pay as consideration for the same either in cash or in shares of this Company, or partly in cash and partly in shares, or to allot the whole or any part of the capital stock of the Company, credited as fully or partly paid up, as the whole or part of the purchase price, or with notes and (or) debentures and (or) other negotiable or transferable securities:

(j.) To sell or dispose of the whole or any part of the undertaking, land, property, assets, estates, or effects of the Company or any part thereof from time to time for such consideration and upon such terms as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company, and to divide such shares, debentures, or securities among the members of the Company in specie, or to distribute all or any of the property of the Company amongst its members in specie:

(k.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to use, grant licences or rights in respect of, or otherwise turn to account, any patents, patent right, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention or process which may seem capable of being used for or in connection with any of the purposes of the Company, or which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(l.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary and convenient for the purpose of the business:

(m.) To construct, maintain, and alter any building or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(n.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and as consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks, or obligations of this Company:

(o.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company or any customer, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(p.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, bonus, or concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(q.) To acquire, hold, alienate, convey, mortgage, or hypothecate any real estate for its own use, accommodation, or by way of securities or investment:

(r.) To borrow, raise, or secure payment of money in such manner and form as the Company may think fit, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock charged upon all or any of the Company's property, present or future, or both, including uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off the same:

(s.) To create, issue, make, draw, accept, endorse, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and all other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(t.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(u.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges, and concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, and generally to satisfy any payment by or obligations of the Company, by the issue of shares of this Company or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up, or of debentures or other securities of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up:

(v.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(w.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(x.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(y.) To procure the Company to be registered, established, and recognized in the Dominion of Canada or any of the Provinces thereof, or the United States of America and elsewhere abroad, and to carry on business thereunder:

(z.) To carry on any other business which may seem to this Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to render profitable or enhance the value of this Company's property or rights for the time being:

(aa.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid either as principals or agents, and either in the name of the Company or of any person or company as agent of the Company, and either alone or in concurrence with any person, company, Government, or other body or authority:

(bb.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.

(i.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of or otherwise turn to account, letters patent, brevets d'invention, concessions, licences, inventions, rights, and privileges, subject to royalty or otherwise, and whether exclusive or non-exclusive or limited, or any part interest in such letters patent, brevets d'invention, concessions, licences, inventions, rights, and privileges, whether in the Dominion of Canada or in any other part of the world, and to manufacture and produce, trade and deal in all machinery, plant, articles, appliances, and things capable of being manufactured, produced, or traded in by virtue of or in connection with any such brevets d'invention, concessions, licences, inventions, rights, and privileges as aforesaid:

(j.) To advance money to any person or persons or corporation, either at interest or without, upon the security of freehold or leasehold estate by way of mortgage or upon any marketable security:

(k.) To acquire the good-will of any business, and to acquire or undertake the sale of all or any of the assets and liabilities of any such business, and take over as a going concern the business in connection therewith:

(l.) To promote or form or assist in the promotion or formation of any companies, businesses, or undertakings having objects wholly or in part similar to those of this Company, or for the purpose of acquiring, purchasing, holding, working, or otherwise dealing with any property of the Company or in which this Company is interested, or for any other purpose, with power generally to assist such companies' businesses or undertakings, and in particular by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses thereof, or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof, or by taking or disposing of shares therein, or by lending money thereto, upon debentures or otherwise, and further to pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses attending the issue of any prospectus, circular, or notice connected with this or any other company:

(m.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, sell, and give guarantees by way of underwriting or otherwise in relation to stock, shares, debentures, obligations, and securities of any company, or any municipal, public, or local board or authority; provided always that the funds of this Company shall not be employed in purchasing or acquiring its own shares or in loans upon the security thereof:

(n.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, cheques, bills of lading, warehouse receipts, warrants, securities under the "Bank Act," bonds, debentures, mortgages, and other negotiable or transferable instruments or securities of every nature and kind whatsoever:

(o.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase-money, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, effects, and rights of the Company, amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(p.) Generally to carry on any other business, except the business of banking, the construction and operation of railways, telegraph and telephone lines, the business of insurance, or the business of a trust company, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently or profitably carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value and render profitable any of the Company's properties or rights, and to do all and every thing necessary, suitable, convenient, or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or the attainment of any one or more of the objects herein enumerated or incidental to the powers herein named, or which shall at any time appear to be conducive or expedient for the protection or benefit of the Company.

And it is hereby declared that in the interpretation of this clause the meaning of the Company's objects shall not be restricted by reference to any other object, or by the juxtaposition of two or more objects, and that in the event of any ambiguity this clause shall be construed in such a way as to widen and not restrict the powers of the Company.

(9.) To lend the Company's money on real or personal security, and generally to carry on business as financiers and investors, and to undertake and carry out all business transactions and operations (except such matters as are prohibited by the "Companies Act") as an individual capitalist might lawfully undertake and carry out, and to lend and advance money to such parties and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company; and to make, draw, accept, endorse, and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other and all negotiable instruments, and to purchase, lease, construct, and hold or otherwise acquire foreshore and territorial water rights, foreshore rights and privileges, real and personal property, patents, machinery, warehouses, wharves, and other buildings and easements, and to sell, lease, or mortgage the same or any part thereof; provided that nothing herein shall authorize the Company to exercise any power of a trust company as defined by the "Trust Companies Act":

(10.) To invest, loan, and deal with the moneys of the Company upon such securities in such manner and upon such terms as may from time to time be determined:

(11.) To act as brokers and agents for any person, firm, or company, and to undertake and perform sub-contracts, and also to act in any of the business of the Company through or by means of agents, brokers, sub-contractors, or others:

(12.) To promote any other company for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and undertaking any of the liabilities of this Company, or of undertaking any business obligations which may appear likely to assist or benefit this Company or to enhance the value of the business of this Company:

(13.) To sell or otherwise dispose of the whole or any part of the undertakings of the Company, either together or in portions, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any company purchasing the same:

(14.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future), including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay any such securities, and similarly to secure and guarantee the payment or performance by the Company of any liability or obligation it may undertake:

(15.) To take securities of such nature as are deemed expedient for any moneys loaned by or owing to the Company:

(16.) To lend money to such persons, firms, or corporations and on such terms as may seem expedient, and either with or without security, and in particular to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the payment of money and the performance of contracts by any such person, firm, or corporation:

(17.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(18.) To enter into contracts for the allotment of shares of the Company as fully or partially paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price of any property, real or personal, purchased by the Company, or for any valuable consideration, including services rendered to the Company, as the Company may from time to time determine:

(19.) To remunerate any director of the Company or person or persons for services rendered or to be rendered in or about the conduct of the Company, and such remuneration may be in cash or by allotment of fully paid shares of the Company or in such manner as the Company may determine.

Provided that the objects herein specified in any paragraph hereof shall, except where otherwise expressed, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph hereof or the name of the Company.
